Box 23, Newcomerstown, Ohio

Dear Sir:

On my return from two weeks' vacation, Mr. Robertson showed me a nice collection of Portuguese coins which you left here, with the privilege of picking out those which we should be glad to have.

I have examined this collection and have selected a number, as per the enclosed memorandum. I understand that you left the price of these to us, and I have tried to value them at a fair and proper valuation as we understand Portuguese coins in this country. If these prices are satisfactory to you, I will have a cheque forwarded.

In the meantime, I am holding all the coins here. Those we do not want, I presume should later be returned to you.

Very truly yours,

Curator
